NEW VULCANIZING ESTABLISHMENT.

An entirely new plant for the vulcanizing and other repairs of rubber tires will be open for business in the Kaplani building, Alakea street, about the 10th of this month. This concern will be known as the Honolulu Vulcanizing Works, and is to be managed by V. V. Newell.

Mr. Newell, who has had several years experience in this line of business with the Diamond Rubber Company, has been in the employ of a local automobile concern for eighteen months and is well and favorably known in Honolulu automobile circles.

The balance of the company's machinery will arrive here about the 7th, and Mr. Newell states that it is of the very latest type and will enable him to make repairs on automobile, motorcycle and bicycle tires of any size and make.

AQUATIC SPORTS FOR FOURTH

John Cooper, of the Hawaiian News Company, is in charge of the aquatic sports proposed for the fourth by the Sane Fourth Committee, and he reports having arranged for five events to be contested between the hours of two and four on Tuesday afternoon, over harbor courses. The first event will be a six-oared sliding seat barge race, in which it is hoped that crews from the Myrtle and the Healan Boat clubs will compete. A sailing race for the Wrens will follow, a cutter race for the men-of-war-men, whale boat race for all comers and a six paddle canoe race will complete the program.

BRITISH CRUISERS AND OFFICERS IN FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION

The commanding officer of the cruiser Kent was seen this afternoon with regard to the assertion that if the British warships here fire salutes on the Fourth of July, it will be the first time in history. He smiled as he stated that the newspaper that had made the assertion seemed to think that the British were still harboring unkind thoughts of Americans. He added that as far as could be gathered among the officers on two vessels, it would be the first time that British vessels had joined in a Fourth of July salute to the Stars and Stripes, but it was merely a coincidence that British cruisers had not remained in an American port on July 4—nothing more, he was certain.

At Ball and Reception.

The captains of the two British cruisers now in port will be in the reception line at the ball on the evening of the Fourth, at the Young Hotel. In the line will also be Governor and Mrs. Frear, General and Mrs. Macomb, Admiral and Mrs. the Cowles, Hon. and Mrs. E. A. Mott-Smith, and British Consul Forster.

The U. S. Marine band will play in the Myrtle boathouse during the afternoon. Suitable prizes have been provided for the races and entries will close at five o'clock on Monday evening at the office of the Hawaiian News.

CIVIC FEDERATION

lishing of an agricultural college for Hawaii.

f. Children's playgrounds have been established by this committee's suggestion.

g. Several prosecutions have been carried through against obscene postcards.

h. The waste paper containers on some of the street corners were first suggested by this committee.

i. Continued agitation helped materially in the establishing of the local juvenile court.

j. Medical inspection of schools was urged by the committee long before any definite action was taken.

These ten widely different subjects, taken at random out of the many considered, indicate special service to the community.

COURT OFFICERS TAKE THE OATH

Henry Smith, before Judge Cooper this morning, took the oath of office as chief clerk, cashier and bookkeeper of the Circuit Court of the first judicial circuit.

James A. Thompson also took the oath as clerk of the Supreme Court

Special invitations will be sent to army and navy people, officers of the Kent and Challenger, and local consuls, and the public will be invited through the press.

The ball to be held in the Young Hotel on the night of the Fourth of July is in the hands of a very strong committee, headed by E. M. Cheatham, C. C. Swain and Colonel Jones. Both the ball rooms at the Young Hotel will be used and dancing will be continued until the last couple grow weary. The music will be supplied by Berger's Band which will commence playing at 7:30 o'clock. A reception will be held at nine o'clock, after which the ball will start up. E. M. Cheatham will have charge of the makal floor, assisted by Wm. Thompson, Kenneth Brown, W. T. Schmidt and J. T. Carey, while the mauka floor will be looked after by O. C. Swain assisted by Arthur Wall, Gus Murphy, Colonel Jones, Ed Towse and Chas. Crane. With this group of men at the head of affairs it is a foregone conclusion that all the arrangements for the ball will be carried out in an admirable manner.

and Robert Parker, Jr., as assistant clerk; Job. Batchelor, M. T. Simonson, John Marcellino, C. A. K. Hopkins and V. M. Harrison as Circuit Court clerks; C. L. Hopkins as Hawaiian interpreter; J. M. Camara as Portuguese interpreter; Farm Corn as Chinese interpreter; S. K. Maruyama as Japanese interpreter; J. L. Harner, Gilson D. Bell and P. Maurice McMahon as stenographers; John C. Anderson as probation officer for boys, and Agnes E. Maynard as probation officer for girls.

Assistant clerks who officiate also as bailiffs are raised to clerkships in the new order.

Henry Smith entered the clerical branch of the judiciary in March, 1883, having been previously for two years a clerk in the interior department.

James A. Thompson began as clerk in the deputy marshal's office, under C. L. Hopkins, in February, 1889. May 1, 1892, he was appointed clerk of the police court, and in August, 1895, appointed by the justices of the Supreme Court and judges of the Circuit Court as deputy clerk of the judiciary. He and Parker are appointees of the Supreme Court justices. Mr. Thompson acts on occasions of absence or disability of clerks of outside circuits, both as clerk and stenographer to the courts thereof.

Miss Kate Kelley continues as stenographer to the Supreme Court, and J. M. Unnahele as bailiff and librarian.

Czar Nicholas has restored his brother to court favor and has ended his exile because the latter has given up all ideas of marrying the lady-in-waiting to whom he was much attached in spite of court opposition.
